the canadian food and agriculture sector is for the most part competitive and export oriented although challenges and opportunities vary significantly between regions primary agriculture benefits from an abundance of natural resources and faces limited environmental constraints this book analyses egypt s 2011 revolution highlighting the struggle for freedom justice and human dignity in the face of economic and social problems and an on going military regime post communist russia is an instance of the phenomenon of authoritarian modernization project which is perceived as a set of policies intended to achieve a high level of economic development while political freedoms remain beyond the current modernization agenda or are postponed to a distant future why did russia unlike many countries of post communist europe pursue authoritarian modernization after the soviet collapse what is the ideational agenda behind this project and why does it dominate russia s post communist political landscape what are the mechanisms of political governance which maintain this project and how have they adopted and absorbed various democratic institutions and practices why has this project brought such diverse results in various policy arenas and why have the consequences of certain policies become so controversial why despite so many controversies shortcomings and flaws has this project remained attractive in the eyes of a large proportion of the russian elite and ordinary citizens this volume intended to place some of these questions on the research agenda and propose several answers encouraging further discussions about the logic and mechanisms of the authoritarian modernization project in post communist russia and its effects on russia s politics economy and society a close up look at the struggle for democracy in hong kong hong kong in the shadow of china is a reflection on the recent political turmoil in hong kong during which the chinese government insisted on gradual movement toward electoral democracy and hundreds of thousands of protesters occupied major thoroughfares to push for full democracy fueling this struggle is deep public resentment over growing inequality and how the political system established by china and dominated by the local business community reinforces the divide between those who have profited immensely and those who struggle for such basics as housing richard bush director of the brookings institution s center on east asia policy studies takes us inside the demonstrations and the demands of the demonstrators and then pulls back to critically explore what hong kong and china must do to ensure both economic competitiveness and good governance and the implications of hong kong developments for united states policy the specialist as we know it in the modern age is a creation of modernity up until the modern age scholars were known for their expertise in multiple areas from avicenna ibn i sina and hezarfen ahmet celebi to leonardo da vinci and galileo many medieval renaissance and enlightenment scholars were polymaths mastering knowledge from several fields the needs of the modern age created specialists focusing deeply on one field at the convergence of postmodernism and the age of the internet social cultural and economic realities of increasingly diverse societies have created a new need for the revival of the polymath emerging globalization post cold war triggered rapid social change that cannot be explained from the perspective of a single discipline this reality has recently increased the interest in interdisciplinary studies but established academic work that is focused on single disciplines still dominates the academic world and it offers limited opportunities for the publication of interdisciplinary studies one of the aims of this book is to become one example for interdisciplinary work it also aims to prepare the ground for the cultivation of scholars that can specialize in more areas on the long term this book is made out of sixteen articles that bring together different disciplines such as educational sciences law linguistics economics culture and sports all articles passed the referee process bearing in mind that the book is the result of a multidisciplinary work the respect towards each discipline is shown by leaving the referencing and methodology according to the common usage of the relevant discipline therefore some authors have used the chicago manual of style within their articles while others have used the apa system
